

I send huge appreciation to the members of the French Sai Maa community whose many hours of seva have brought us the French translation of I Remember Union: The Story of Mary Magdalena. Their attention to detail and accuracy, the love and blessings they bestowed on the world through the magnificence of Magdalene, all support the celebration of the Divine Feminine in the world and bring Mary more fully into our hearts and lives.

Our deepest gratitude Caroline Houle, Dominique Renaud, Danielle Giguère, Marie Bunod, Josée Doucet and Ginette Chaput, for translating the book and numerous subsequent translations.

Our thanks to France Lehoux, Hélène Ménard, Liliane Cattalano and Nicolas Sicot for our last and final editing! What an accomplishment for all!

Through the generosity of this community, monies are being raised to complete the graphic typesetting of the book! The following letter specifies practitioners and products being offered by the French community.

Here are the offerings bringing love, blessings and grace,

Flo Aeveia Magdalena
